WHY MEN DELAY!

Being an adaptation to Life Insurance of a well known allegory

By F. H. Gross.

One day the Prince of Devils, PROCRUSTATION, and his clan of little Devils, namely—Falseness, Fear, Worry, Delay, and others who harass us humans, held court. They were met to discuss a very important subject—that of Life Insurance.

After much preliminary discussion the Devil of Falseness arose and said: "We will go among the people and tell them that Life Insurance is NOT a good thing. We will tell them that it is an unnecessary expense, and the returns small and unsatisfactory."

"No, no!" the rest rejoined, "that will not do at all, for men realize that Life Insurance is a good thing, and so admit. If we want to kill the good that Life Insurance does, we must get at it in some other way."

Then the Devil of Self-Deceit spoke up and said: "We will go to the people and tell them that Life Insurance Companies are unnecessary—that if men will put certain amounts of money in the Savings Bank each year, they will accomplish the same thing by themselves."

Again the meeting demurred. "That won't do at all," they said. "From our own experience in deceiving men we know that they regard Life Insurance highly as a necessity. They already know from bitter experience that it is costly to their families and themselves to be without it. This second plan will not do. We must find a more effective way."

Finally, after much heated discussion, during the course of which many plans to destroy the usefulness of Life Insurance were rejected, the great Devil of Procrastination arose and spoke:

"Follow helpers," he said, "it is very evident from the discussion here that men regard Life Insurance highly, and realize that insuring their lives is an act of wisdom. It would therefore be pointless for us to try to deceive them along the lines heretofore suggested. Why not let us devote all our energies to DELAYING their action? Why not throw a false sense of security around them? Tell them Life Insurance is a good thing—that they ought to have it. BUT that there is no need for haste—that there is plenty of time to act. 'Play up strong' on present pleasures and comforts as against the remote good which Life Insurance affords. Life Insurance is a deliberate attempt on the part of a prudent man to build a 'good road' for future use. We must do all we can to hinder the building of that road. So, go forth, my helpers, and preach DELAY, and fix upon the lives of men the badge of your King, PROCRUSTATION."

And they went forth and did their work as bidden, and that is why there are so many men today, who cannot get insurance. They put it off, and put it off "till some more convenient day" and when the convenient day came they were no longer insurable.

MANY VETERANS GOING TO RICHMOND REUNION

WILL LEAVE ANDERSON MONDAY AFTERNOON AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

BIG TIME PLANNED

Miss Martha A. Bonham Appointed Sponsor for South Carolina Division.

On Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the veterans of the city and county of Anderson will leave over the Blue Ridge and Southern for Richmond, Va., to attend the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans. These reunions are always looked forward to by not only the old veterans all over the South but many other people also. The reunion last year was in Jacksonville, Fla.

This year Miss Martha A. Bonham of this city has the honor of being the sponsor of the South Carolina Division, U. C. V., having been appointed some time ago by Gen. B. Hammett Teague of Aiken, the mads of honor are Miss Olive McGowan of Columbia, granddaughter of General McGowan, and Miss Caroline Sinker of Eutawville.

Miss Bonham will leave Anderson this morning for Richmond, via Florence, where she will be joined by the mads of honor and the three will go on to Richmond together.

Among the veterans of this section who have signified their intention of going to the reunion and who will leave Anderson tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 are: John W. Thompson, A. L. Welch, J. T. Stucky, S. N. Pearson, L. E. Campbell, J. P. Cox, D. H. Russell, E. D. Henderson, J. T. Hubbard, L. J. Scott, T. J. Chapin, M. N. Pickens, J. Stribling, John W. Simpson, Mr. McDavid, Oliver Bolt, J. N. Byrum, W. W. Russell, S. J. Davis, Robert Moorehead and Pink Reed.

Says Prejudice Against Jews is Strong in This Country.

In the June American Magazine a Jew writes an interesting article entitled, "What It Means to Be a Jew." He relates many personal experiences. Following is an extract from his article:

"Travel in other countries has convinced me that in every section I visited the Jew was much more respected and more frequently received socially than in the United States. Again I ask, Why? Surely you Gentiles take into your clubs and homes people who are worse in every respect than the average Jew or Jewess. Admit that they at times lack polish. Are you not sometimes badly veneered? Might not rubbing up against each other add to the polish in one and subtract from the veneer in the other? Admitting that there are desirable and undesirable Jews, are there not also desirable and undesirable Gentiles?"

"Frequently this matter has been discussed with me by the best men in our community, and by presidents and other officers of some of these clubs. They have admitted it was a disgraceful state of affairs, but have claimed to be powerless to change the conditions, but no one has ever advanced any other reason than sheer cowardice."

"While no one has ever openly suggested to me that financial or other injury has resulted from the admission of our people to these clubs, there might perhaps have been a lurking suspicion to this effect, and it may have been covertly assumed."

"I know of clubs both East and West where they have been admitted, and where, also, they are regarded as highly as any other members, and where the success of the club socially and as an instrument of good in the community has been augmented; and I know of one club in particular in the East where membership is invited (no applications are received) and where at least two of our people have thus been admitted, and are as highly regarded, and their worth as thoroughly appreciated, as that of any other member, and the club has lost no prestige on account of their admission."

Whooping Cough.

"When my daughter had whooping cough she coughed so hard at one time that she had hemorrhage of the lungs. I was terribly alarmed about her condition. Seeing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once. Before she had vanished two bottles of this remedy she was entirely well," writes Mrs. S. F. Orms, Crookville, Ohio. Obtainable everywhere.

Drugs Excite Your Kidneys, Use Salts

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.
